Description

Once described by Marco Polo as "the most beautiful and magnificent city in the world", it has helped making Hang Zhou one of the leading tourist attractions in all of China. It is a city rich with history and culture, spanning back over 2000 years. It made a name for itself in the sixth century, when the Grand Canal opened up and linked the area to other centers of trade. The Song dynasty helped to make Hang Zhou famous when the imperial family moved there in the 12th Century. With its inviting views and outstanding scenery, the area soon became popular with numerous artists, poets and painters seeking inspiration in this little bit of "paradise." A 2.5 hours high way drive will take you to the city of Hang Zhou. You will first cruise across the West Lake to view unforgettable scenery such as the Three Pools Mirroring the Moon, the Bai and Su causeways, and Solitary Hill. The boat ride will be end at the Fish & Flower harbor. After lunch, you will also visit Guo Garden Villa which is the nicest garden villa in Hang Zhou. The next destination is Six Harmonies Pagoda, built during the Song Dynasty to ward off floods from the nearby Qiantang River. Finally, a visit to Meijia Tea Village can help you discover the history of Chinese tea and the tea ceremony.
